Dear Mr. Ellsberg:

I take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for your splendid cooperation during the recent Cuban crisis.

It is gratifying to me to know that during a period of national emergency I was able to call upon civilian experts to participate with the Defense team to achieve a common national objective. Your willingness to give freely of your time and expert counsel and your dedication to our cooperative task is indicative of your loyalty and devotion to our common interests.

Once again, my sincerest appreciation for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Paul H. Nitze
